

Be GOOD AND ✓ READY

Aotearoa is a place where disasters happen - earthquakes, tsunami, fire, flooding and pandemics.

Good and Ready for a Tsunami

A tsunami is a very large wave created by an earthquake. If you are near the coast and feel an earthquake or see the sea rise or fall suddenly - move immediately to the nearest high ground, or as far inland as you can.

READY TO JOIN?

New Zealand Red Cross volunteers have been on the front line of disasters in Aotearoa for over 100 years.

We'd love you to join us.
